Mid 911 Register Overnight Run to The Harvest Home Hotel, Avenel Sat 27th – Sun 28th October 2007

Built in 1871, The Harvest Home Hotel is a retreat for people who enjoy great food, wine & ambiance. This is one of Victoria's first country hotels which has been beautifully restored, maintaining the original leadlight windows, light fittings and open fires, but with a contemporary touch.

Our interesting journey will take us from Healesville, through the beautiful Black Spur to Yarck. We then climb up into the Strathbogies to Ruffy, through spectacular rocky country on a narrow and challenging bitumen road to Longwood, arriving at the hotel around 3pm for afternoon tea.

CANDLE-LIT VICTORIAN
DINING ROOM

Choose wines from the extensive wine list, sip a G&T, visit the underground cellar or just relax in one of the lounge rooms. A multi course (degustation) feast, featuring regional cuisine & local produce presented in an innovative style, will be served in the grand dining room in the evening, with the music of Frank Sinatra and Nina Simone.

After a slow Sunday breakfast explore the town's antique shops and follow the local 'wine trail' which includes Mitchelton, Tahbilk, Goulburn Terrace & Traegar.

The Harvest Hotel has also opened the 'Old Bank' cellar door which offers wine tastings/sales and a selection of produce including chilli beetroot chutney, Kasoundi, pickled peaches & verjuice.

Price for this great weekend:

Premium (en-suite) room, afternoon tea, 5-6 course degustation dinner (wine not included) & breakfast $440 per couple.

Standard (share bathroom) room, afternoon tea, 5-6 course degustation dinner (wine not included) & breakfast $390 per couple.

No BYO wine.

Each room is individually decorated in keeping with the period of the hotel.
