The Phillip Island Classic

13th, 14th & 15th March 2009

“Shannon’s Walk - Porsche Club Display”

Saturday 14th & Sunday 15th March 2009

The ‘Shannon’s Walk’ is again being staged this year at the Phillip Island Classic, and the Porsche Club of Victoria is participating with a display of twenty vehicles on Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th March.

The “Walk” will have a similar layout to 2008, consisting of a curved walkway of about 200m long and 10m wide, connecting the bitumen entry road, to the Shannon’s cavalcade compound and the footbridge. Along the Walk there will be about 45 stands, comprising 35 Car Clubs and 10 Manufacturers & Suppliers.

A huge entry of more than 560 vehicles has been received for the 2009 Phillip Island Classic Festival of Motorsport from March 13-15, equalling the record attendance of the past two years and cementing the meeting’s place as the major event of its type in the Southern Hemisphere.

Capacity grids in many categories, 18 overseas drivers from six nations, and the attendance of iconic figures in Australian motorsport such as Skaife, Richards, Seton, Grice, Jane, Goss, Bartlett, Percy, Janson and many more, have been confirmed following the official close of entries on February 13.

Highlights include an entry of 43 Minis for a special Regularity event marking the 50th anniversary of the ubiquitous ‘brick’, with drivers including, Bob Holden who won the 1966 Gallagher 500 at Bathurst with Rauno Aaltonen in a Mini Cooper S.

Like last year, “Shannons Walk” will be active on Saturday and Sunday, although you can setup on the Friday after 1pm.
