Good Food, Fine Ride, Great Friends!

Sunday 27th September 2009

The Tea Rooms of Yarck!

“Yarck. Two hours from central Melbourne. Quintessential Victorian countryside with crows overhead and sheep behind the barbed wire. What a curious place to find yourself at lunch on a Sunday; even more so that it should be a sublime Italian/Australian dining experience. But it’s no accident.”

John Lethlean - Gourmet Traveller

“Tea Rooms is also completely unpretentious. That’s the Sardinian approach to life and food. Cooking that uses a main ingredient with a couple of flavours merely acting as highlights. It’s simple cooking but must be done properly. While locals are lucky to have such a special restaurant so close, for city folk it’s another reason to leave town.” 15.5/20

Jane Faulkner, The Age

Join the Mid 911 Register for a drive through Victoria’s much cherished regions to The Tea Rooms of Yarck.

This is the trip for foodies, lovers of great local wines and supporters of bushfire survivors.
