‘Masterclass’ Program- Phillip Island GP circuit.- Friday, 2nd July, 2010

Our next drive day is a rare opportunity to not only practice at one of the greatest race circuits on the planet but also have an opportunity to learn from the best in the business. This ‘Masterclass’ program is structured like our standard open pit-lane practice days but with the addition of personal one-on-one tuition from our special guest instructors- V8 Supercar drivers and multiple Porsche champions:

Cameron McConville
 V8 Supercar driver for HRT
 GTP Champion 1996 in
 Porsche 993 RSCS
 Formula Ford Champ 1992

Fabian Coulthard
 V8 Supercar driver for TWR
 Carrera Cup Champion 2004
 Porsche GT3 Cup Car
 Formula Ford Champ 2001

Luke Youlden.
 V8 Supercar driver for FPR
 Formula Ford Champion 2000
 Carrera Cup round winner
 997 GT3 Cup

All three of our guests are not only professional racing drivers, but more importantly, have many years' experience and championship wins with Porsches. They'll be conducting video and exclusive data acquisition analysis as well as sharing their insights into extracting the best possible performance from this amazing circuit. A must for anyone that is serious about improving their circuit driving skills.

As always on our days, you won't be restricted to schedules or sessions, just drive on and off the circuit at your leisure and for as long as you like. (again, passengers will be allowed). And race cars are welcome!

Cost is $595 per car. Book now for this special event as places are strictly limited.

For more information please email info@pilotasportiva.com.au for a registration form or phone Steve on 0409 968 588.
